

Ten Nation-Famous New York Murders

By Alfred Henry Lewis

4.-How Stokes Killed Flak and Why.

OF PRECEDING INSTALMENTS.

In Vermoute, after vertous crevincial came to New Tork. He formed an attended trot.

Most of the Goald and together they roul of the Eric Railroad. To insure their manipulations of the railroad with his own claims of absolute power, Stokes had made a night-before referbase that time ruled New York City, with sad beautiful joining styling himself at the prices of Rife. He paid market at a beautiful woman maned Manafield, such Ed Robes, a brilliant New York call on her. He later induced Stokes, such up quarrole between him and the roman.

(Continued)

(Continued.)

(Thy touch is cold and clammy to those who cross my path," said Fisk, who must have been reading Mr. Bearing and Fisk was dickers and the continued to sympathine.

(Continued.)

(Continued.)

(Continued.)

(Continued.)

(Thy touch is cold and clammy to those who cross my path," said Fisk, who must have been reading Mr. Bearing and the continued to sympathine.

(Continued.)

ranged for you?"
"T'don't understand," Stokes replied.

"State Prison, my boy," purred

Pick, tasting his wine. "It was I whe sent Morehead after you to insulf you until you assaulted him; you fell filesly into the trap, my boy."

A Queer Loan.

Fisk went further, an with embezzling $50,0 pany's money, and sa was arrested the

"Thon't understand," Stokes replied.
"State Prison, my boy," purred whe sent Morehead after you to inwhe sent Morehead after you to inwhe sent Morehead after you to inwhit you until you assaulted him; you fell "filcely into the trap, my boy."
"State Stok."
"Tou're dull, Ed; extremely dull"—here a sip of wine—"I suppose you know that I rule here as much as any Reservices ever ruled in Paris? I rule the courts. I rule the furies. There's an indictment rish now against you in the office of the District Attorney, which I'll have to send we to kill. The Grand Jury reportions to kill. The Grand Jury reportions

"By you were behind that gutter-bred like this: person. Morehead?" Stokes said after a pease. "Welt, Jim, make no mistake: for myself, I've no fear of you."

Borrowe

TRE Death Threat.

"Not fear me?" bellowed Fisk, as though an insult had been put upon limit into fear me? When I have newer to drive companies worth miltions in terror from the State, don't fearer I'm not powerful enough to put through a job which would land a fellow pf. your size. in Sing Sing."

through a job which would land a fellow of your size in Sing Sing."

"I may yet so to Sing Sing because you." Stokes retorted, his brown gilttering. "but it'll not be through of firer any job of yours."

The talk was growing too warmly intesting, and the Mansfield interfered. It'll avenue and Twenty-sith street, while Fink went soddenly to bed. This was in brown October, 1870. The letters referred disastrously to Gould. Boss Tweed and a long black really street. District-Attorneys and Grand Twiss and General Sections Judges had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield, devint boost these value for comments of these went home to the Worth House, the papers.

The Mansfield received a printed slap. Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield, devinted beautiful procedure. The beautiful procedure of the papers.

The Mansfield received a printed slap. Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield, devinted boastful letters to the Mansfield, devinted boastful letters to the Mansfield, devinted boastful letters to the Mansfield received a printed slap.

The Mansfield received a printed slap.

Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield received a printed slap.

The Mansfield received a printed slap.

Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield, devinted by the papers.

The Mansfield received a printed slap.

Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield received a printed slap.

The Mansfield received a printed slap.

Fisk had been weak-minded enough to write boastful letters to the Mansfield received a printed slap.

The Man

then and there had he not been held in check by that killing's dellar inconventure of the killing's and rebats, was making $200,000 a year; and Fisk, or that in the sem refinery, could are stopped every dollar of the two fundred thousand on its way to Stokes's hand.

Gave for the Manefield—still a bit slower of the Manefield to such examples of the Manefield—still a bit slower of the Manefield—still a bit slower of the Manefield—still a bit slower on the Manefield in every softer sense was through with Fisk. And so third street that night save Stokes and Fisk went to the Eric offices, breath-"Ed, my boy," said Fisk, squinting ing fire and jealous smoke. As compto each the color of the burgundy, troller of Erie, he instantly cancelled "it's luck for you that Josie and I are the rebate contracts of the Hunter's friends again. Do you know anything Point refinery, and threw that oil income the little surprise party I'd argument of the Erie offices, breather ing fire and jealous smoke. As comptoned in the little surprise party I'd argument of the Erie offices, breather ing fire and jealous smoke. As comptoned in the little surprise party I'd argument of the litt the rebate contracts of the Hunter's Point refinery, and threw that oil in-dustry—it was making $759,000 a year —on the rocks of a receivership.

Eric Ratiway Company.

Borrowed and received from Miss Josie Mansfield, fifteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($15,780).

JAMES FIRK JR.

The papers — Pisk was all powerful with the press, having the Tweed ring behind him—began to fill up with villain tales concerning Stokes. Hokes, falling back upon the libel laws, began to sue the reserve.

Bessie's Vacation.

By Eleanor Schorer.

THAT did Cupid do for Beaste out on the tossing billows? He deco plans to rob every Bob of his treasured heart. Each was to be attacked rated his brow with a big bandana, which means that he turned and looted by the cruel, plotting pirates. And the way it was to be into a despesa pirate. And into Bessie's shell ear he hissed clever done you shall soon see. ELEANOR, SCHORER.

Modern Americans Who Have Led the March of Progress By Julius Chambers

"S .- ALBXIS CARREL: Wixerd of Surgery.

LL discoveries in science russ main trunk of arterial circula the gamut from the impossible to the obvious. The discission and initiative in surgery is the Franco-American, Dr. Alexis Carrel, of New York.

When one leaves this wisard of the lancet and scalpel, it is with a parting injunction that the writer deal only with the ideas for which the speaker, Carrel, stands. How mistaken was this remarkable innovator in insisting to me, on the afternoon before his recent departure for Europe, that the personality of the latest winner of the Nobel price for medical research is not of general interest! Especially was I impressed with his youth. In his mowwhite, 'respect' he assend young to one who so regards a man under the ferty mark.

LL discovery amain trunk of arterial circula which, appinging from the left vest in the heart, form of the bear, form and there divides into the lungs. Prior to Carrelle in the discovery a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery as a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery as a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery as a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery as a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find discovery as a serious wound in main artery or in the heart was find of the leans the left lung, turns downed at two grant arteries distributing to the lance

His original and immortal idea was the transplantation of healthy bodily the transplantation of healthy bodily organs for diseased once. The assertion that this feat could be successfully done was so startlingly radical that surgery stood aghast! Such organs, there argued, were obtainable from the healthy bodies of people killed in accidente and sould be preserved in cold storage for a reasonable time. Love of His rises supreme to sentiment; all definite scientific lines. of Mfe rises supreme to sentiment; all repulsion against assimilating a part. appears before the desire to remain "I thought you wanted to be Mayor upon earth! Transplantation of kidneys of Plunkville." from one animal to another was suc-

A veritable patch was put upon a a good chance of being elected ma punctured human agets in 1911. The of the town ball agets is the great artery forming the Journal.

voted to his native land and her traditions, ten years in this country have made of him a thorough American. Dr. Carrel is the best known figure in the Rockedaller Institute for Medical Research—the most practical of Mr. Rockedaller's benefactions.

Carrel's first monograph was on "Cancerous Geitre" (Lyons, 1900); his initial work in the United States was done at the Hull Polyalnic Laboratory. University of Chicago.

The process of the during his forthcoming lectures in that during his forthcoming lectures in the woold amneunce that during his forthcoming lectures in the woold amneunce that during his forthcoming lectures in the woold amneunce that during his forthcoming lectures in the woold amneunce in the woold amneunce in the woold amneunce in the woold amneunce in the domen-now at everyday occurrence.

merding surgery of the future &

/ REAL TAME. "

"That was one of my early embilions; but I look higher now. I'm told I have

The Destroying Angel

of New York

A Summer Romance

Author of "THE BRASS BOWL," &c.

By Louis Joseph Vance

Object the first provided by an elaborately prilied shirt out a hit."

The table in the ioutheast corporated by an elaborately prilied shirt out a hit."

Whitaker was conscious of electronic was considered by an elaborately prilied shirt out a hit."

Whitaker was conscious of electronic was conscious and provided by an elaborately prilied shirt out a hit."

Whitaker was conscious of electronic was conscious was conscious of electronic was conscious of electronic was conscious was conscious of electronic was conscious was conscious and electronic was conscious was consci